

A large block of stylized, geometric patterns and symbols, possibly representing a form of writing or a decorative motif. The patterns are arranged in horizontal rows and include various shapes like circles, squares, and lines. The colors used are primarily black and blue on a light background. There are two vertical red bars on the left and right sides of the block.

