The table is a simple wooden structure with two horizontal shelves. The top shelf holds several books and papers. The bottom shelf is cluttered with more books, papers, and a small white container. Two educational posters are pinned to the front of the table. The left poster is a grid of small images, possibly related to biology or agriculture. The right poster is a colorful chart with text and diagrams, likely a curriculum or educational resource. The table is situated in a room with a mud-brick wall and a thatched roof.
